

NWIR

National Women in Roofing

2020 NWIR WORLD Award

Purpose: Honor a roofing industry professional based on:

- Commitment to the development of the roofing industry
- Perseverance against industry odds, breaking barriers (under-represented, age, disability, etc...)
- Identifying a new perspective of service/contribution to the industry
- Making a difference in respective roofing niche

Nominations based on the following criteria:

- Growth
 - Personal and professional (balance)
 - Company development
- Contribution to the industry as a whole
- Challenges faced and overcome (Entry level and current professional status)

Qualifications:

- Roofing professional
- 3 years minimum in the industry
- Must be affiliated with a roofing association
- Measured growth in:
 - In business success
 - NWIR service through 4 Pillars
 - Mentoring
 - Education
 - Recruitment
 - Community service
 - Local, regional or national
 - Within & outside of the roofing industry
- Balance: home and work
 - Well – rounded individual

All nominations must be placed on behalf of someone other than the nominee in order to be considered. Please include all career and personal awards, accomplishments and community service contributions. Any/all references, letters of recommendation, etc. are welcome and should be attached to the nomination. Judging process will be a “blind” process with nominees presented to the judging committee as anonymous entries.

Entry deadline: September 30, 2019. Winner will be notified by the judging committee by mail. WORLD Award will be announced at the 2020 NWIR Day conference

NWIR

National Women in Roofing

2020 NWIR WORLD Award Nomination Form

Name

Company Name

Address

Email Address

Phone

Relationship to nominee

Please provide the following details about your nominee:

- personal/biographical background
- professional information and dates of service
- service to any/all of NWIR's 4 Pillars
- community service: political, social, military, etc...
- Reasons why you are nominating this individual